BEFORE YOU START

How to play

There is no scoring and nobody wins. The cards exist so that neither of you has to think of what comes next.

01

Agree your limits out loud

Name anything that is off the table tonight, before the first card is drawn. It takes thirty seconds and it changes the whole evening.

02

Take turns drawing

Read the card out, then do it. No swapping cards because you did not like the one you got.

03

Anyone can pass, any time

No reason needed and no penalty. A pass costs nothing. This is the rule the whole deck rests on.

Print on A4 or US Letter. Six cards to a page, cut along the outer edges. If your printer does double sided, run the card-back page on the reverse and the deck will look bought rather than made.

YOU HAVE 35. THERE ARE 65 MORE.

The night does not have to stop at warm.

Level One is the easy part — the cards you can play over dinner with the lights on. The full deck carries the evening the rest of the way, at whatever pace the two of you set.

Level Two	Flirtier and more personal. The cards you reach for once you are both warmed up and the evening has somewhere to go.	35
Level Three	Bold. Only with both of you fully in. Direct and playful, written for consenting adults who already know each other well.	30
